DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Padovani (US 5,937,019) in view of Subramanian.

As per claim 11, Padovani teaches an apparatus in a communication system (an apparatus as in fig. 3A and 3B item # 155) comprising:

Padovani teaches a first signal (see signal BTS (150 of AMPS) processing block (figs. 3A and 3B item 155) for processing a first received signal to produce a first received processed signal (see column 9, line 61-column 11, lines 35 and figures 3A and 3B).

Padovani teaches a second signal (BTS 200 of CDMA) processing block for processing a second received signal to produce a second received processed signal (see column 9, line 61-column 11, lines 35 and figures 3A and 3B).

Padovani does not expressly teach a combiner for combining said first and second received processed signal to produce a combined signal.

However, Subramanian teaches a combiner for combining said first and second received processed signal to produce a combined signal (see column 8, line 50-column 11, line 50 and figure 2b).

One ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would be motivated by Subramanian teaching to modify Padovani in order to transfer the communication from first system to the second or soft handoff. Then, it would have been obvious to process first and second standard of signals, in order to transfer the communication from first system to the second or soft handoff.

As per claim 12, Padovani inherently teaches a decoder for decoding the combined signal to retrieve information communicated via the first and second signals.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13-16 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach a multiplier for scaling the calculated signal energy according to the present scaling factor.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tilahun B Gesesse whose telephone number is 571-272-7879. The examiner can normally be reached on flexible schedule.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Edward Urban can be reached on 571-272-7899.

The Central FAX Number is 571-273-8300. For patent related correspondence, hand carry deliveries must be made to the Customer Service Window (now located at the Randolph Building, 401 Dulany Street, Alexandria, VA 22314), and facsimile transmissions must be sent to the Central FAX number .
